

AUE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

3RD – 5TH SEPTEMBER 2025

NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY

Park View Student Village

The wonderful view from our accommodation. Cows roaming free and Newcastle United's football ground.

EXCURSIONS

On Wednesday delegates had a choice of four different excursions to enjoy:

- Thorn Lighting Tour
- Ouseburn Trust Tunnel Tour
- Anarchy Brewery Tour
- Discovery Museum Tour

More information on each excursion is available on the AUE 2025 Conference webpage.

THE EXHIBITION

The exhibition opened on Wednesday 3rd September at the University's Sport and Fitness Centre.

The event was opened by Erin Peart, Director of Estates and Facilities at Newcastle University.

In total there were XX exhibitors. More information on each is available on the AUE 2025 Conference webpage.

The opening was followed by the Welcome Dinner.

WELCOME DINNER

held at Newcastle University's Students' Union

The Key was the charity sponsored at the Gala Dinner with £1,170 raised

GALA DINNER

held at the Biscuit Factory. The after Dinner Speaker, Georgia Elliot-Smith

HARLAND ROBERTS AWARD

Winner: Joseph Thomas,
University of Warwick

JOHN HALLETT AWARD

Winner: Sally Wilkin,
AUE Administrator

PLENARY SESSIONS & WORKSHOPS

There were 4 Plenary Sessions, hosted by Kate Bellingham who was as informative and entertaining as ever. Topics ranged from Betamax: How to be Wrong When You Are Right and District Energy - Full Circle on the Path to Net Zero.

There was also a choice of 9 Workshops to attend.

More information on each is available on the AUE 2025 Conference webpage.

Sessions hosted by Kate Bellingham

Delegates being entertained

Fran Scott, Scientist, Engineering Broadcaster and Pyrotechnician

Closing Remarks

Billy Ferguson, AUE National Chair & Head of Sustainability Delivery, University of Glasgow

THE MODERN UNIVERSITY ESTATE ENGINEERING AND ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE AUE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2025

Closing

Billy Ferguson, AUE National Chair, closing another successful AUE Conference. Details of the 2026 Conference are still to be confirmed.