

Membership Benefits

AUE Institutional Membership only £500 p.a.

UNLIMITED numbers of qualifying members may join from any member university, including Estates Engineers, Technicians, Apprentices etc.

Annual Conference provides a unique opportunity for members to come together as like-minded individuals to discuss current topics, as well as networking with fellow colleagues, conference guests and key industry suppliers.

AUE Academy Free CPD Accredited Webinars throughout the year, heavily subsidised CPD training opportunities, training bursaries, mentoring options are provided, regionally & nationally. There are the opportunities to attend technical seminars, general problem solving & broad general networking events.

Discounted BSRIA Membership (Building Services Research & Information Association) AUE is represented at BSRIA.

Regional Meetings Meet fellow university engineers, discuss and share issues, CPD opportunities, presentations, factory tours, legislation refreshers etc.

Resources is a knowledge-sharing feature of the website providing free & easy access to technical & reference documents contributed by our members. It is the “go to” tool for insight into products & services to help deliver in their roles, benefiting from members’ experience.

JISCMail /Member Forum is a powerful networking tool used by our members to share experiences, seek advice, look for recommendations & generally avoid re-inventing the wheel! In the last 12 months over 350 topics were discussed. Our membership is very engaged & prides itself on its ability to share best practice.

The National Equipment Defect Reporting Scheme (NEDeRS); an international database that enables service providers and industrial users (from the UK and overseas) to share defect information about electrical equipment manufactured worldwide available to eligible AUE members at no charge.

Executive Committee Join other members & participate more in the running of the Association

The AUE has over 700 individual members, across 100 institutions, over 9 regions & has been supporting those members & institutions for over 50 years.

There are 2 levels of membership (Full & Associate)

Complete the Application form <https://www.aue.ac.uk/join-us/>

Visit our website at <https://www.aue.ac.uk> or send an email to info@ae.ac.uk for more information.